

I realize that you are interested in serving businesses and large political donors rather than "we the people". However, media control by the few will pervert an already tottering democracy by further limiting news, especially local issues. You may still be rationalizing your decision but I hope this note catches you at a saner moment.